

MIDWEST PSYCHIATRY

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAMS

The clinicians at Midwest Psychiatry are committed to providing public service presentations to schools, churches, and other community organizations. As time permits, they can give talks or participate in panels on a wide variety of mental health issues. Their areas of expertise include such topics as:

- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorders
- Anxiety Disorders
- Depression
- Bipolar Disorder
- Child Development
- Parenting
- Psychiatric Medication
- Psychotherapy

For further information, contact Martin Leichtman, Ph. D., or James Hunter, M. D., at (913) 345-1191.